Waltham St Lawrence Parish Council Allotments

- The Waltham St Lawrence Parish Council (the Council) owns the land known as The Allotments.
- The Council is committed to maintaining the grounds of this facility such that an orderly standard is achieved.
- The Council accepts that the provision of this facility is as a service to the community.
- The Council accepts that the nominal rent levied on the tenants may not cover the running costs of the water and grounds maintenance.
- The Allotments is a rectangular strip of land -approximately 54ft frontage onto The Street opposite Paradise Cottages stretching east approximately 723 ft from the entrance gate to Sue's Piddle.
- The frontage from The Street includes.
 - The roadside verge
 - The ditch
 - The hedge
 - 113' from the entrance gates to the first designated allotment
 - 210' of allotments
 - 400' of woodland footage
- The land is bounded by privately owned residential properties and land to the south (Coltmans Farm and Coltmans) and to the north (Hornbeam House and Dolphins).
- The 54'x113' area from the entrance gates to the first allotment includes a bench seat with a mown sweep in front of it-overlooking an area of wildflowers.
- The eastern end of the allotments 54'x400' is woodland planting.
- A public footpath runs the length of The Allotments -east/west.
- There is a water meter under the manhole cover roadside of the entrance gates.
- There are currently 13 allotment gardens (7 tenants)
- Each allotment garden has a frontage onto the footpath of
- 30'-34' and extends back to the north boundary hedge. This gives approximately 1100sq ft of useful space.
- There shall be a space between each allotment garden of 2ft 5in-3ft in width.
- There are 4 no. taps for the allotment users.
- Allocation of the allotment gardens rests with the Parish Council.
- Tenancies will be for the financial year from April to March renewable at the discretion of the Parish Council.
- The rent will be paid annually in advance.
- A shed which is no more than 8'x6' will be allowed on each allotment where the tenant requires it:

The shed should be situated between the allotment and the hedge on the northern boundary.

The highest point of the shed should be no more than 2.4m from ground level

The allotment sheds must not have a concrete base or any similar permanent component.

The contract holder accepts that if they default on the care of their shed, or if the shed is left and falls into disrepair, the Parish Council has the right to remove it.

A deposit of £100 is required per shed to cover any possible expenses incurred in the removal of the shed and contents. This deposit to be refunded after the allotment holder relinquishes the allotment and removes the shed or passes the responsibility to the subsequent allotment holder if appropriate.

It is the responsibility of the allotment holder to ensure any apparatus or equipment that they store on the allotment.

- Bonfires must be responsibly managed with respect for other residents.
